ANCHORSAWAY Worldview

The Anchorsaway Worldview Curriculum is a comprehensive and practical means of teaching students to understand the Christian faith with the mind, as well as with the heart. The curriculum modules cover life questions that Christians and skeptics have regarding their origin, the mess that the world is in, the hope for a world that makes sense, the purpose of their life, and their destiny when they die.

Anchorsaway is taught so that students develop an authentic faith of their own, a lifestyle that is reflective of Christ, and a passion for sharing truth with others.

Why Instructors Love It:

ACTIVE LEARNING

Make learning easier. Enable students to be more successful with our active learning approach to course and content design.

SIMPLE SETUP

Make teaching easier. Pre-built modules can be used as-is or customized to align with course goals. Streamline course start-up with our course implementation specialists.

EASE OF USE

Maximize your time. Manage multiple course sections easily. Auto-graded labs and self-assessments will reduce grading time, so you can increase teaching time.

REAL-TIME VISIBILITY

Know what your students are viewing. Data analytics provide visibility regarding course engagement, progress, and success. Allows for early intervention, giving the instructor the opportunity to adjust for course success.

SUPPORT MATERIALS

A library of content at your fingertips. Additional content used and approved by professors across the country: PowerPoint presentations, quiz banks, interactive online chapters, self-assessments, discussions, reflections...etc.

EDUCATIONAL DESIGN

Have more content you want to implement? We supply editorial and educational design support for new course materials. Focus on the content, we'll do the rest.

"I wanted a curriculum that would engage our students and expand their understanding of a Christian worldview. Anchorsaway did both of those things extraordinarily well. The depth and breadth of the topics (called "anchors") is impressive."
